

Application Form for the Sturgeon County Subdivision and Development Appeal Board (SDAB)

How does Sturgeon County balance development with community? With help from people like you.

The Subdivision and Development Appeal Board is a quasi-judicial board that plays an important role in helping Sturgeon County meet its obligations under the Municipal Government Act.

This board includes public member representatives who hear appeals regarding property subdivision and development.

The board meets as required and only if appeals are filed by residents. Members are compensated for their time at meetings.

Board experience is an impressive addition to your resume and can help expand your network.

Interested in becoming a member of the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board? Here's what we look for in a candidate:

- Resident of Sturgeon County
- Keen interest in learning about Sturgeon County's Land Use Bylaw, Municipal Development Plan, as well as the Municipal Government Act and other pertinent legislation.
- Availability to attend meetings during the day
- Ability to exercise impartiality
