

Métis Week

November 15 - 22 , 2025

Proclamation

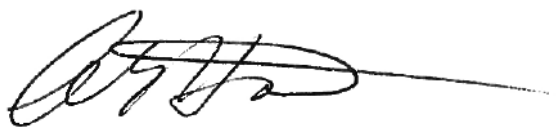

October 28, 2025

Whereas, Métis Week is a time to recognize and honour the rich history, vibrant culture, and enduring contributions of the Métis people and communities, whose traditions, languages, and stories form an integral part of Alberta's identity and Canada's heritage; and

Whereas, Métis Week commemorates the life and legacy of Louis Riel, a Métis leader who championed the rights and resilience of his people and whose courage continues to inspire future generations in the pursuit of justice, equality, and reconciliation; and

Whereas, Métis citizens, leaders, and communities and the Métis Nation of Alberta continue to share and celebrate their vibrant culture and traditions, strengthen community connections, and foster pride in Métis identity;

Therefore, I Alanna Hnatiw, Mayor of Sturgeon County, do hereby proclaim November 15 to 22, 2025, as Métis Week in Sturgeon County. Residents and community partners are encouraged to join in celebrating Métis culture and traditions and to reflect on the history, achievements and resilience of the Métis people.

Alanna Hnatiw
Mayor, Sturgeon County
